The True Livestock Principle.
Of the plants used in manufacturing the pleasant remedy, Syrup of Figs, has a permanently beneficial effect on the human system, while the cheap vegetable extract and mineral solution, usually sold as medicine, are permanently injurious. Being well known you will use the true remedy only. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

MATRIMONIAL.
Casson-Meyers—Mr. James W. Casson, a prominent south-eastern Christian farmer, and Miss Meyers, of Chattanooga, were married at 9 o'clock a. m., Thursday last.

DEATHS.
BROOKS—Hollard Clark, infant son of Eldridge and Mattie Clark, died at his home near Paducah, Sept. 19, 1922, of whooping cough, aged nine months and twenty-two days.

New Orleans papers please copy.
Bates—Mrs. Eliza Bates died last Tuesday at her home near Blackwell, in Webster county. The remains were brought to Kaley for interment. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. Joe P. Mearns, of this county.

The Louisville poisoning case is still involved in mystery. The police found no trace of arsenic but who put it in the batteries that killed Mrs. Austin and Mrs. Sherill is still unknown.

Mr. B. R. Withers, formerly of this city, died two days at V. C. Jones at Columbia, Tenn. last Friday, but without effect. Jones is president of the racing association of which Mr. Withers is secretary. They got into an altercation over matters connected with the horse. Jones' clothes were seized by one of the ladies.

The city registration under the new law will take place at election precincts and not at the voting places, Tuesday Oct. 4. Every voter in the city is required to register. Your jurisdiction, if you live in the city, will not entitle you to vote unless you register under the new law requiring the voters of this city of more than 5000 population to register the first Tuesday day in October.

The "Destined Sinners," a play produced by a company of amateurs, who are visiting nearly all of our neighboring cities, will hold the boards at Hollard's Opera House on the evening of Oct. 7. The show has been exceedingly complimentary in commenting on the performance, and is very new and the audience has been well pleased. The proceeds go to the Maecule Widows and Orphan's home of Tennessee. This show should insure a full attendance.

The Grand Lodge of Kentucky Knights of Pythias will meet at Harrogate to-day and continue for several days. The lodges in this vicinity will be represented as follows: Henderson, Exalted Chapter H. H. Abernethy, Grand Prioste A. D. Rodgers and Representatives Bailey, W. H. Campbell, W. C. Wright and D. D. Wiley. Paducah, K. Y. Pendleton, Jr.; Gray, H. H. Bryant; Cadiz, M. S. Thompson. Grand Prioste Rodgers will in all probability be promoted to Grand Vice Chancellor.

In this issue appears an advertisement of the dressmaking and millinery business by Mrs. Ada C. Layne. Mrs. Layne has moved from the upper floor of Mead's old stand to the first floor, where she will conduct business in the future. She is the best buyer in the city, and her goods are well known to all the latest in fall and winter styles. The service of Mrs. Carver, Modiste, of Louisville, have been returned for the season and Mrs. Layne's large custom can rest assured of being pleased in every particular. Due notice will be given of her grand fall

HERE AND THERE.

W. W. Trice, son of Mr. Jno. B. Trice, left for Richmond, Va., yesterday, where he will enter Richmond College for the coming term of ten months.

Overcoats are coming into style. If you have one that is faded the Hopkinsville Steam Laundry and Dry Works can color it and make it like the new. Call and get price.

"Washington City and Surroundings" will be the theme of Rev. S. N. Vail's lecture in the First Presbyterian church on Thursday evening of the week at 7:45. Lecture free. Everybody invited.

Mr. Nat Gaither has purchased of the trustees of the Baptist church the residence he is adjoining the site selected for the new church, paying for the same $1500. Mr. Gaither will not build upon his property until Spring.

The execution train over the O. V. Railroad Sunday was well patronized. About 150 tickets were sold in this city, about the same number of tickets at Paducah. The train reached Paducah there were 800 aboard. There will be another similar train to Paducah on the day that place next Sunday.

The County Teachers' Association met at Crofton Saturday. Seventeen teachers were present at the meeting and a very interesting program was carried out. The next meeting of the Association will be held at Beverly on the 14th Saturday in October. Any teacher who wishes to attend these meetings, as they are very interesting and instructive, and productive of much good to the cause of education.

The Democrats of Canton have elected a flag pole at that place to the Democracy. The pole towers about one hundred feet high and can be seen displaying the flag for miles away. The Democrats of that place are very enthusiastic and are preparing to have a grand rally, better known as the "Flag Pole" rally, on Saturday night and public speaking on Saturday next. Everybody is invited and the affair promises to be a grand success.

Millions of grandmothers have made their appearance in the extreme southern portion of Christian and in portions of Montgomery county, Kentucky. They come about in swarms and many of them are killed by trains passing along the highways. They are not so numerous in places that are greatly away from the highway. They are they are the Kansas people. They are rarely seen near this country.

Order E. T. Frank, of Morgan, called upon the Republican campaign in this county Saturday night with a large following. He labored hard to convince his crowd that the tariff was not a tax, a position no longer held by men of sense. This will indicate pretty clearly the kind of "argument" Mr. Frank makes. Of course it suited the misguided Republicans, who expect nobody else to do their thinking

MRS. M. E. ROGERS'

Full stock of Millinery Goods is being received. The ladies are invited to call and examine.

Farm for Sale.

The farm known as the BOSTICK PLACE, near Gray, is situated on Sinking Fork creek and is directly on the O. V. Railroad, 6 miles from Gray. The tract contains 167 acres less 5 acres devoted to the railroad. It is well improved and watered and is a good stock cultivation. It is a promising young orchard, also a few trees of fruit. The tract has a large spring and a good water system. It is located in a good neighborhood, lying between the farms of Mr. McGraw and Mr. C. R. Clark and is convenient to school, office and church. I will offer the valuable tract at a great bargain on easy terms. For further information call on or address me at Gray Ky., or require a Kentucky office, John J. Hark.

Picket Fencing

All wishing Picket Fencing can be supplied by Jno. J. McFarlane.

Columbian Exposition.

The First National Bank has opened an account called "The Columbian Exposition Fund," and proposes a contest for the purpose of raising money to attend the great fair in 1903. Particulars on application.

For Sale.

On 1st Street, cottage occupied by Nat Gaither, 5 rooms, bath room, gas, water, and electric. For terms apply on premises.

OPPIUM LOOK!

Having determined to reduce my large stock of Dry Goods, Notions, &c., I will for the next thirty days cut the price on everything in my house. This is no bluff; I mean just what I say. I quote no prices, for my goods are all marked in plain figures and you can see for yourself. I will invite you most cordially to give me a call before you buy.

T. M. JONES,

FARMERS LOOK HERE.
